

Who is Jack the ripper ?

Jack the ripper was the name given to a serial killer in London in 1888, during the Victorian era.

He was the first documented serial killer, and in the 20th century the phrase “extreme violence” was coined because of his crimes.

He killed five women, and they were all prostitutes:

-Mary Nichols, on the 31st August

-Annie Chapman, on the 8th September

-Elizabeth Stride and Catherine Eddowes on the 30th September

-Mary Kelly on the 9th November.

All of the dead bodies were found in the area known as Whitechapel.

He remains infamous in London because the Police never found him.

He was and he is the world's most infamous serial killer.

*This is historical fiction from the high school Notre Dame de la Paix,
Place du Concert, Lille*